Foreword

I AM highly honored in being asked to write the Foreword for the 1951 Analecta. With this feeling goes a sense of responsibility. What should one say in these crucial days to a group of students graduating from High School?

I suppose one might direct his remarks along one of several lines. There is one, however, which especially appeals to me. I would urge every young person first and foremost in these days to become what he ought to become or to make life what it ought to be. The issue today is moral and spiritual. Become a strong soul moving towards completion in the light of the Ideal which I spell on purpose with a capital "I".

Concern yourself with the discovery of the Ideal, the Great Moral Imperative, the Person Magnificent. There are three ways in which you can be assisted.

First, acknowledge the loftiest moral tone in society. There are three kinds of people; people of the average good life, people below the average, and people far above it who live on a lofty spiritual and moral plane. Incorporate the life of the latter in your Ideal.

Second, be loyal to the royal in yourself. "To thine own self be true." There is a self within you that insists you play the game, repudiating the cheap, low and vulgar, always favouring the morally excellent and ethically sound. Give this self right of way.

Third, study the great moral precepts of such as the Ten Commandments, the teaching of the prophets, the voice of the fathers; search these things out and submit your Ideal to them.

Having discovered the Ideal you must openly identify yourself with it and be irrevocably committed to it. There is a broad, meandering way through life over which men sprawl to death. There is a narrow, disciplined, dedicated way, eternally loyal to the Ideal which leads to life. Follow this!

Here is some advice given to a young man more than two thousand years ago in the Valley of the Nile. "Attain character. Make righteousness to flourish and thy children shall live . . . although misfortune may carry away wealth . . . the power of righteousness is that it endures. Established is the man whose standard is righteousness, who walketh according to its way."

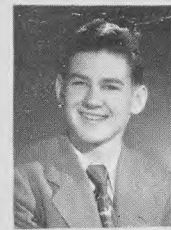

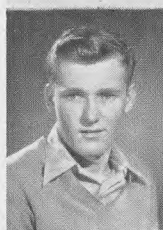

—SAMUEL J. B. PARSONS.

Valedictory

THIS evening, Class 1951 is bidding an affectionate farewell to Central High School. How wonderful that seems, and yet how strange. We have listened to former classes saying "goodbye", and questioned their sincerity when they insisted that they were reluctant to leave the homework and exams. Now that our turn has come, we can understand. We are proud to have reached this goal, but the pride that we feel is tinged with regret.

Four years ago, we entered C.C.I., not with the poise and determination that we would like the present grade ten's to believe we had, but rather with doubts and misgivings. Certainly many of us were impressed by Central's excellent scholastic record and by her prowess on the athletic field; besides it seemed a little presumptuous of us to think that we could maintain that same enviable standard. We have tried. A favored few have shone academically; others have shone athletically; but the majority of us have just shone, shone with enthusiasm and shouted our full-lunged support to our teams—whether they won or lost. How we have revelled talking about: these ancient walls, our feathered friends—the pigeons—and our tempermental heating system. Yet never have we for a moment envied the students of any other school. In the years to come we will have so many important things to remember—little things: how triumphantly we bore home our first report card—the one which showed our skeptical parents that we had "made the grade"; how fearfully we waited in dreaded apprehension for our first late slip; how excitedly we primped and fussed for our first school dance. These we will never forget.

To our sorrow we have discovered that knowledge is not achieved without a great deal of Churchillian blood, sweat and tears. With Longfellow we can now say and mean:

"The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not achieved by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night."

None of us will ever forget Mr. Weir as Pliny so expressively puts it: "vitae sanctitas summa, comitas par; insectatur vitia, non pueros, nec castigat errantes sed emendat". As the years have gone by, we have felt more and more that the teachers are the creators and supporters of the glowing spirit of Central. Their sympathetic understanding will always be remembered by this graduating class.

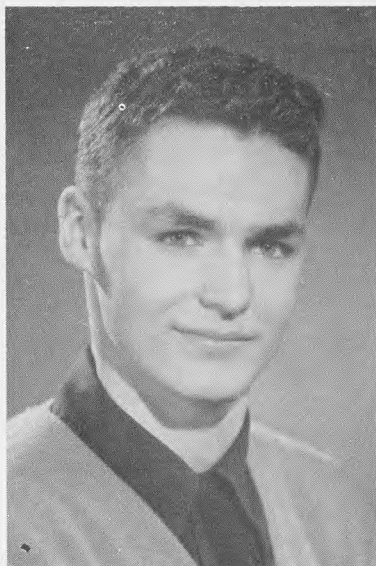

It is certainly not a rosy world that awaits us, but perhaps we should remember that defeatism brings nothing but defeat. A great challenge, the

Valedictory

TONIGHT is the last time that we, as students of the graduating class, will have the privilege of entering this auditorium and regarding ourselves as active sons and daughters of C.C.I. We are ready to go; yet we regret that Time has drawn so rapidly to a close in the few years that we have spent here.

These years have meant so much to us all—such wealth of friendship, such unstinted help in achieving our aims, such stimulation to ambitions that the idea of faring forth without these is indeed a fearsome thing. We have cut classes, we have neglected opportunities, and we have not always lived up to what was expected of us; yet there is not one of us who goes forth from this school who will not be a better man or woman for having been here.

As we grow older we will be able to recall with pride the multiple honors achieved by various individuals and teams during our sojourn here, and although many of us were unable to participate or to win distinction, yet it was our spirit, our help, in instilling this spirit in the minds of the newcomers, that was a factor in making Central successful. We were indeed fortunate in choosing a school which has such fine spirit, for the benefits obtained are many. Perhaps the most important of these is the recognition of unity, that is, the ability to work harmoniously with others, as a major factor in achieving success. This unity has contributed to the well-known fact that graduates of Central High School are outstanding Canadian citizens.

We have learned that success does not come to those who do not earn it, that perseverance and determination are essential requisites and that "sportsmanship" applies only to those who play fair in everything they do.

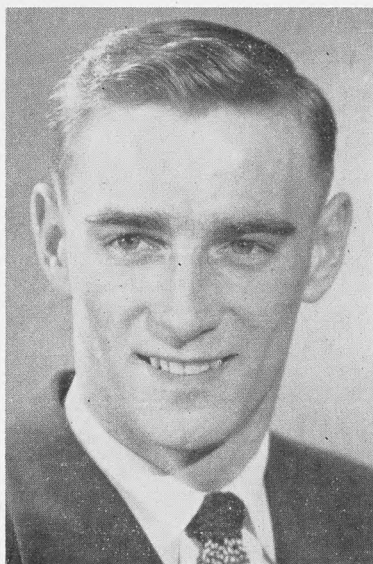

I have not the words to express what we who are leaving, would have you, our teachers, know of our loyalty to the school, and of our appreciation of all that you have done for us. There is not one member of the faculty who has not done his or her share to bring out the best that is in each one of us, not one who has not helped us to control those impulses that are unworthy of the standards an alumnus of this school should attain.

It would scarcely be fair to mention any one member of the faculty more than any other; yet we cannot go without voicing our gratitude to our principal for the way in which he has stood by us in our times of trouble and helped us back to the right path. Just to know him has been, in itself, an education in manhood, in devotion to duty, and in all the qualities that make for the highest types of citizenship.

However, we must think of the future. Just what it holds in store for us we are not sure, but because of our training here, we are able to face it with

In Appreciation

THIS 1951 Analecta records yet another year in the history of Central High School. May it, both now and in the years to come, bring back to us happy memories of some of the best days of the best years of our lives.

To all who have so willingly co-operated in bringing this Analecta to publication, I give my sincerest thanks, with a very special "thank you" for Mr. Weir and Miss Calder, both of whom have given valuable advice and guidance at every stage of the work. Nor should those business firms who by placing advertisements in these pages have helped very materially in the production of the book be forgotten in our thanks.

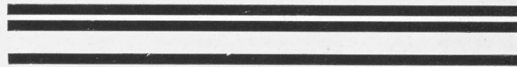

The responsibility of being Editor of the Analecta, a responsibility which I consider both a trust and an honor, has now been discharged. The work has been a pleasure as well as a responsibility because it has meant a year of happy association with a splendid team of co-editors, both fellow-students and faculty.

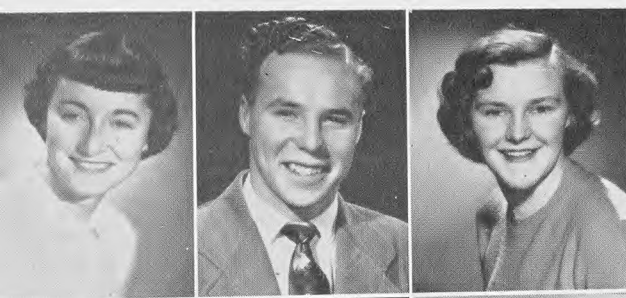

During this year we have all learned something more of that most valuable are, the art of getting along with others. So important does this happy spirit of co-operation seem to me, that, I should like to dedicate this Analecta to its furtherance, not only in our own lives, and in our school, but still more in the wider ranges of the world.

challenge of a vision of a better world confronts us. Let us hope and pray that this challenge will evoke in us great enough strength of heart and mind to meet it.

We have heard too much about the horrors and misery of war to think that there is any glamour or glory left in the well-worn tanks and guns; besides we have seen that very little is ever won by war but—the eternal "but" remains. Perhaps we may be able to help change the "but" to "so". At least we can try.

We live in a land where the "Four Freedoms" are the sacred rights of every person. It is our solemn duty to see that these rights are upheld and fostered; most assuredly after our training at Central we should be more prepared to do so. To you, our fathers and mothers, to you, our teachers; and most especially to you, at this moment, Central—for all that you have so unselfishly given us—we are deeply grateful. Our road lies ahead, we bid you "good-bye".

—LINDA GRABURN.

optimism, with courage and with determination. Some few of us may be numbered among those who will shed light upon this place, but whether or not we attain such eminence, let us so conduct our lives that we will always be a credit to Central High School.

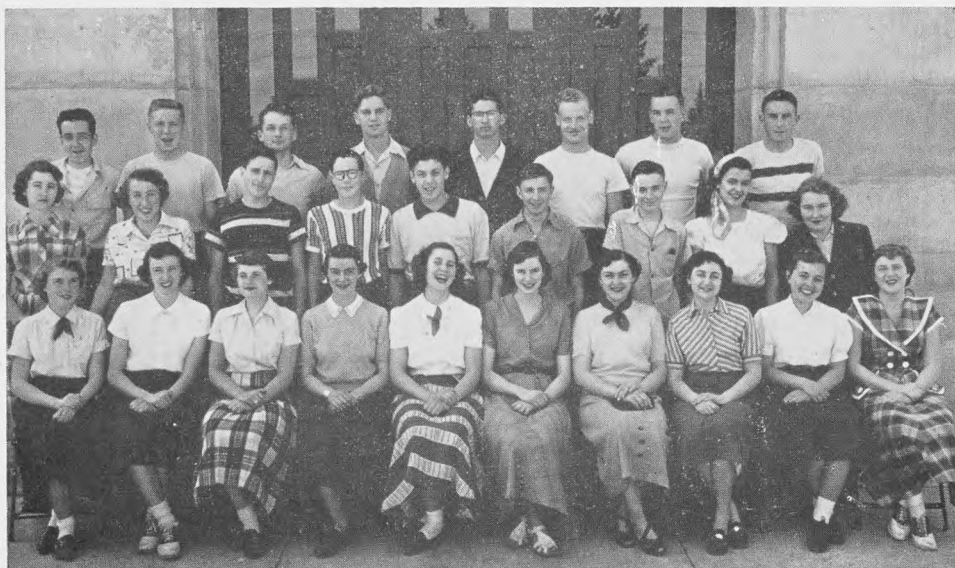

Although tonight we pass from intimate contact with you and this building, it is not a complete parting, for wherever we go, whatever we do, the memories and training we have received here will be with us always, shaping our course, and helping us to steer our bark through the depths and rapids of life.

Major projects carried out by the club during the year were: The presentation of their annual dance, "Freshman's Friday", the purchase of warm-up jackets and crests for the Junior Basketball team, a donation of $25.00 to the "Y" Building Fund, the sale of school sweaters. The club assisted, as vigilantes, at the basketball games.

Speakers for the year included the prominent lawyer, "Scotty" McLaws, our own Mr. Churchill (Sr.), and Sgt. Moffat of the city traffic squad, who showed some very interesting films on safety driving.

The term was brought to a close with a banquet in Picardy's Rose Room. A dance followed at the home of Edward Gaetz.

Senior Girls' Y-Teen

President	Myrna Shapter
Vice-President	Betty Millard
Secretary	Flo Danyluk
Treasurer	Diana Trotter
Adviser	Miss Jagoe

The Senior Girls' Y-Teen's projects began with the yearly party for the new girl students of the school, in the auditorium.

Work then began anew with plans for the annual Tea-Zaar held in December. Because of a reduced membership, the tea was presented on a somewhat smaller scale than usual. However, it was a success, both socially and financially, for all further projects were backed by funds derived from the tea.

Rodeo Romp, in honour of the basketball teams of Central, was presented in April. Amusement, in the manner of a skit, was staged by the more dramatically minded of the club.

Further worthwhile projects included sending parcels to needy European families, and a visit to the new Junior Red Cross Hospital. Social activities wound up with a hike to Sandy Beach in May.

Junior Girls' Y-Teen

Term Executive:

President	Roberta LeBourveau
Vice-President	Leonor Haw
Secretary	Eta Pearlman
Treasurer	Mary Jo Hopping

Although the Junior Y-Teen club was late in starting, many projects were accomplished.

A Christmas hamper was given to a needy Calgary family and a subscription of "The Ladies' Home Journal" was sent to a teen-age girl patient at the Sanatorium.

"St. Rick's Tea", held in March, was the main financial enterprise of the club during the year. From the proceeds, equipment was purchased for the young patients at the Junior Red Cross Hospital.

Mrs. Van der Bellen and Miss Lawrence were most kind in donating their time in giving talks to the club.

The girls would like to take this opportunity to thank their advisor, Mrs. Fraser, and the mentors, Linda Graburn and Joan Fisher, for all the time and effort they have given to Y-Teen.

Activities

Camera Club

Under the direction of Miss Jagoe, the Camera Club has ended its third season.

Executive:

President	Kaye Edwards
Vice-President	Marilyn Perkins
Secretary-Treasurer	Mel Gray
Darkroom Convener	Albert Stein
Sponsor	Miss E. Jagoe

During the year each of the twenty members gave at least one demonstration or talk on such topics as developing, contact printing, enlarging, copying, toning, tinting, flash photography or snow pictures. Slides from the Kodak Company were shown at one meeting, and a hike was held to take night pictures. Mr. N. J. Pickard, Eric Mountjoy, and Mr. Don White, visited the club as guest speakers.

French Club

The French Club, under the enthusiastic leadership of Miss Maxwell, was organized in October.

The present executive is:

President	Dona Marie German
Secretary	Ruth Geddes

Although the club consisted of only eight girls, a great deal was accomplished. The members in their turn, led the singing; gave reports in French concerning Paris and items of current interest found in the Quebec newspapers, "Le Soleil" and "La Presse". Mlle. Maxwell spoke of her personal impressions of "la belle France" and "gail Paris".

The annual Valentine candy sale was again successful in raising the club's share of the fund required to send one member to the summer session of Laval University and another to the Banff School of Fine Arts.

Members of the high school French groups attended the meetings of the Calgary "Cercle Francais" at Mount Royal College. Here the various clubs presented skits and songs for the amusement of the other members.

Many feel that the club has achieved its purpose of furthering the study of French; hence we sincerely hope that it will be continued next year.

Activities

Central Home and School Association

We opened the 1950-51 year with the following slate of officers:

President	Mrs. A. A. Grimes
Vice-President	Mrs. J. F. Burritt
Secretary	Mrs. Arthur Maw
Treasurer	Mrs. A. J. Kranz

Our first meeting in September, was a social evening at which memberships were taken for the season. Discussions of the school curriculum, square dancing and refreshments were the order of the evening.

During the year we have had talks by Miss Florence S. Todd, on "The English Course Today"; Mr. E. W. Buxton on "What the Calgary Branch of the University of Alberta Has to Offer" and Mrs. Carl Olsen on "The Three R's in Occupied Germany". We have enjoyed a panel discussion on "Problems Concerning the Home, School and Student", have had an evening of music during the Christmas season, and an "Open House" and display of gymnastics by the school students. We have been privileged to present a scholarship and bursary to Evelyn Grimes and Nancy Hooper for outstanding scholarship. A large bridge party and dance was held in April to raise funds for the graduating students' dance, which was held on June 8th, 1951.

We hope this was a happy and memorable event for the graduating class of 1951, to whom we wish the best of luck.

Inter-School Christian Fellowship

The I.S.C.F. of Calgary looks back on this year with thanks to God for His many blessings. In Central we have spent the year studying the epistle of James, a book, we found, full of practical daily advice.

Several successful parties have been held, including a city-wide Hallo-we'en Party and a Central house party at Sylvia Burpee's home.

On Remembrance Day week-end we held our Fall Conference with Vinc. Craven and Carl Chico as speakers. At our Spring Conference, the 23rd and 24th of May at the Berean Bible College, Calgary, we were very glad to welcome our new Alberta staff members, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curry.

At our monthly missionary meetings we have studied mission work in South America, Japan, and the South Pacific Islands, and have had speakers from Europe, Ethiopia, and South America.

We are now looking forward to camping days at Alberta Pioneer, with a special new Ranch Camp programme with director Joe Curry of Ontario Pioneer.

Activities

Gamma Phi

Gamma Phi, which is the central co-ordinating and governing body of the "Hi-Y" Clubs of Calgary, was responsible for square dancing lessons and a series of lectures. They have promoted a driving course for the high school students and have held several successful social functions.

President Fred Piper (Western)
Vice-President Jerry Borchert (Crescent)
Secretary-Treasurer Ed Gaetz

Gamma Chi

Gamma Chi, the inter-club council for Y-Teen, once again held a successful season.

The yearly Recognition Service was conducted in the fall at First Baptist Church. Two Y-Teeners were sent to the Western Conference at Victoria, B.C.; moreover Gamma Chi sponsored the Planning Conference preceding the Easter Regional Conference at Edmonton which concentrated mainly on the question of juvenile delinquency—its causes and preventions.

Central members from Junior Y-Teen were: Roberta LeBourveau and Louise Waring; and from the Senior group were: Myrna Shapter, Dona Marie German and Marg. Morgan.

The Executive of Gamma Chi is:

Adviser Mrs. Van der Bellam

The Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club is now completing its fourth year in Central. This club was formed in the first place because of the need for a chorus to sing at such school affairs as concerts, home and school meetings, and graduation. As all choir members know, it is not possible to produce well-blended choral music without much practice; consequently the Glee Club was brought into being in order to make regular practice possible.

This year has been a successful one. The Glee Club was mainly responsible for a Christmas concert, put on for the Home and School. The proceeds from this concert are at present in the bank, a small beginning to Central's "Piano Fund". The concert was socially pleasant as well, for the Home and School members very kindly and lavishly provided cokes, sandwiches, cakes and cookies for all the young 'musicians'.

After Christmas the Glee Club continued practising, and next appeared at the School Demonstration Musical Festival in May. The members would very much like to have entered the Provincial Festival as well, but it was too difficult to find sufficient time for rehearsals. Perhaps another year a solution to this problem may be found.

The last function for the Glee Club was the graduation ceremony, where the girls enhanced the program by singing three little songs of springtime.

Missing—Frances Corbett, Moira Boyd, Kenneth Perkins.

School Orchestra

The Orchestra at Central School has just completed one of its most successful years. It frequently finds difficulty in surviving—in fact, when an orchestra is made up of but two fiddles a piano, a saxophone, and a drum, would it be correct to call it an orchestra at all? However, this year the orchestra can boast ten violins, a mandolin, two 'cellos, a saxophone, a flute, a clarinet, a piano, and, after Easter, an excellent trumpet. Fifteen of these eighteen players come to orchestra practice to pass a regular school subject—Music 1 or Music 2, which grants four high school credits. As no provision is made for orchestra on Central's timetable, the members practise regularly at noon on Wednesdays and Fridays between 12:30 and 2:00—the only known group of high school students who study a school subject wholly out of hours.

At the Christmas concert they played six numbers—not particularly easy ones—and individual members played solos. They also played at the Demonstration Musical Festival, and at the graduation ceremonies of both Western and Central, their selections being different in each school.

Everything considered, this year has been a most happy one for the orchestra, and we hope for even more good fortune next year.

Activities

FRESHMEN'S FRIDAY

Under the sponsorship of the Boys' Hi-Y, Freshmen's Friday was presented in the fall.

All entertainment was provided by the members, with John Butt as emcee. The highlight of the evening's fun was a humorous skit, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew".

A short interruption occurred when a dead member of the club was removed by two fellow pallbearers.

After a few faithful members (two by actual count) had been successfully removed from the aisles in fits of hysterics, the evening concluded with a dance.

RODEO ROMP

Complete with stetsons, ropes, boots, spurs and hoedown music supplied by the Rhythm Makers, an enthusiastic crowd gathered to enjoy the Senior Y-Teen's annual dance in honor of Central's basketball teams.

Prizes, kindly donated by local firms, were presented to the lucky couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill combined to produce a lively hour of square-dance calling and western music, which was immensely enjoyed by the dance-artists.

"Wild Nell, Belle of the Plains", was staged by the more talented members of Y-Teen. Special mention should be given to the "Witch Woman" who dramatically and very emphatically sentenced "Lady Veirdevere" to death, much to the amusement of everyone.

The novelty introduced by this skit was carried throughout the evening and was climaxed with a spirited congo-line.

SPRING FEVER

With Don Anderson as emcee, Spring Fever burst into magnificent bloom. Every year as their last project, the Students' Union plan a final fling for the students before the examinations start. This year's dance was better than ever. The stage decorations and lighting, capably handled by Stewart Fisher and Terry Kellam, did much to create the proper atmosphere. The frats. and sororities generously donated prizes for the spot, elimination and novelty dances. All felt that Mistress Spring had certainly been saluted at this, our 1951 Spring Fever.

Activities

INTRODUCTION DAY

The Introduction Day, sponsored by the Boys' Hi-Y, was held to familiarize the new students with the various school activities and the teaching staff. Don Anderson, as chairman, introduced the teachers; Bob Burton and Bill Manarey, gave brief outlines of school athletics and activities. Mr. Churchill warmly welcomed the grade tens, and, by reviewing previous academic and athletic achievements, stressed their responsibility to the school.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The 1951 Awards Day was held in the middle of June. The all-round girl was presented with the Frances Woolverton Memorial Cup, while the Murray Law Memorial Cup was given to the school's all-round boy.

Letter crests and letter pins for athletic achievement as well as club participation, were awarded to deserving boys and girls.

Among other awards presented were the Barbara Lowry Memorial Trophy and the Kappa Kappa Tau Memorial Sweaters.

Cups, shields and plaques won in athletic events were given to the captain of the winning teams.

GRADUATION DANCE

On June 15th the Central Home and School Association presented the annual banquet and dance held in honor of the 1951 graduates.

The hall was effectively decorated with balloons and streamers. Music was supplied by records.

The climax of the dance came when the student guests were spotlighted. A perfect evening was brought to a close with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne".

GRADUATION EXERCISES

Commencement Exercises for the Graduating Class of '51 were held in the school auditorium on the evening of June 12th. Here parents, friends and teachers heard the class bid farewell to Central and saw them receive their scrolls, symbolic of graduation.

The opening invocation was said by Rev. S. J. Parsons, followed by a brief introduction of the guest speaker, Mr. J. D. Petrie, by Dr. F. G. Buchanan, acting chairman. Mr. Petrie gave a very interesting and inspiring talk to the departing boys and girls about their obligations to the world of today and their participation in community life. The graduates were then introduced by Mr. Pulleyblank and Mr. Churchill and Linda Graburn and Ken Lawson said good-bye to the school on behalf of the group.

Two delightful songs by Central's Glee Club under the direction of Miss Powell, brought to a close the beautiful graduation service.

Activities

The Cheer Leaders

The cheering section, led by Pat Switzer, Diana Pilling, Ann Baxter, Marie Kamp, Mary Mulloy and Lois Lowry, who looked very smart in their white pleated skirts and new turtle-necked sweaters, donated by the Senior Y-Teen and Kappa Zi, have spurred Central's teams to greater heights.

In honor of Central's Senior Rugby Team's winning of the Provincial Championship Trophy, the cheerleaders of the four high schools staged a most successful dance in the fall.

At the try-outs Norma Thomson, Marion Hall, Mary McDonald, Marjorie Joyce and Leona Larson were chosen for next year's cheerleaders. With many ingenious new cheers to swell their repertoire all are certain that they will be able to maintain the crowd's enthusiasm and support in the coming season.

Rugby, track and basketball,
Thru' each game you've heard them call,
Now another year has gone
So let us sing our high school song.

Oh Central High, in praise of thee we sing,
Across the skies our glorious echoes ring,
Your sons and daughters we are proud to be
Our voices swell a mighty song of victory,
With spirits fair and true our teams will play,
No matter what the odds we know that they
Will do their very best to score away and win the day
For Central High.

Boys' Athletic Association

The Boys' Athletic Association, as the name suggests, is a club that was organized to promote sports at Central. All of the team captains of the school and the presidents of all athletic organizations, are members of the club.

This year was the club's fifth year of operation, under the sponsorship of Mr. Hackett.

The officers were:

President	Don Macpherson
Vice-President	Jack Hunter
Secretary	Bill Manarey

The association supplied referees for both the girls' and boys' House League Basketball games. Crests and numbers were purchased for the Senior Boys' warm-up jackets. Pictures of championship teams are being enlarged and framed, and will be hung in the main hall. The past year of operation has again proved the value of having a Boys' Athletic Association.

Senior Football

Through the combined efforts of the hard-driving line of Hunter, Macpherson, Minton, Milvain, Chetner and Walsh, and the fleet-footed backs, Burritt, Hume, Burton and Anderson—under the crack direction of quarterback Bill Manarey, the Black Trophy, emblematic of Senior High School Football supremacy, was copped for Central.

The team travelled to Red Deer where they played, and overwhelmingly defeated a far less experienced team to win the Central Alberta division.

Edmonton's representatives, St. Joseph's High School, proved to be little opposition against Central's well organized club, when they were defeated 21-3 to give Central the Alberta Senior High School Shield.

Much credit must be given to the able coaching of Mr. Hackett, who gave freely of his time and patience to model the team into championship form.

Junior Football

Although Central's Junior Football team did not retain the league championship during the 1950 season, they did give the other high schools many anxious moments.

As the season progressed it became apparent that the championship would be decided by the final game between Central and Western. In the regular schedule Central had lost two of the five games.

Though Central lacked a strong, hard-charging line, they had a relatively powerful backfield. Peter Burns and Jim MacLeod proved to be outstanding guards, while Harold Hanen and Pat Shouldice held down the tackle duties. Jack Armstrong capably handled the right end. Les Belinski, Larry Edwards, and Sandy Fitch presented a fearful contingent in the backfield. Stewart Fisher played in the quarterback slot, while Jim Shindler, the back-bone of the team's defence, operated "in fashion" as the flying wing. Top scorers were Les Belinski and Jack Armstrong.

Next year's team will be bolstered by players such as Ken Harkness, Jay Kellam, John Allison and Dave Garrett in the backfield, with Abe Epp and Bill Holiday on the line.

Grant Spiro and Don Macpherson coached the squad.

Senior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

This year Senior Basketball featured some very closely played contests, with Central finally taking top honors after battling it out with Crescent for the Interscholastic Basketball Championship.

Central Seniors had a very successful season, winning six games and losing two. The opposition this year from all Senior High Schools was tough, with every team having a driving urge to chalk up victories.

To a packed house, Central and Crescent played the final game of a "two game total point series" for the championship. Central went into the contest with a two point advantage, and after a hectic contest of well-played basketball won the series and the championship. The trophy, emblematic of Senior Basketball supremacy for High Schools, was presented to the captain, Jack Hunter.

Under the watchful eye of Mr. Hackett, Bill Manarey, Ken Lawson, Bill Walsh, Jack Hunter, Bob Burton, Don Macpherson, Mearl Venus, Jim Browne, Ron Burritt and Terry Kellam played a thrilling brand of ball.

We would like to congratulate Bill Manarey, Ken Lawson and Bill Walsh who were chosen as members of the All-Star Team.

Athletics

Standing—Doug Hamilton, coach, Bill Fleming, Don Cambell, Winston Churchill, Don Erb, Stew Fisher, Norton Newcombe, Deloy Sallenbach, Robin Round, Joe Ferguson, Mr. W. J. Hackett.
Kneeling—Jim Hawkes, captain.

Junior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

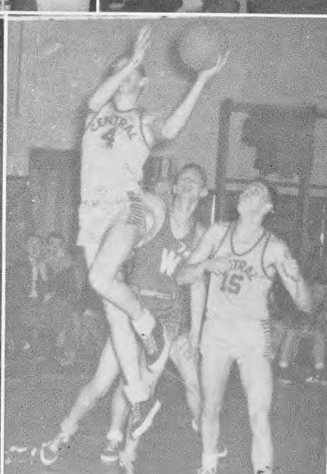

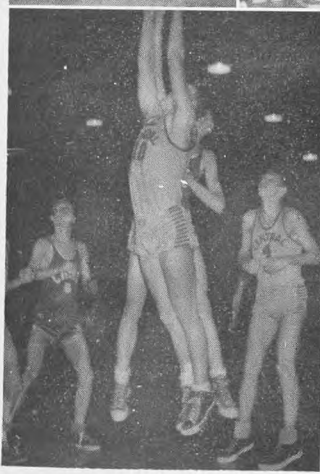

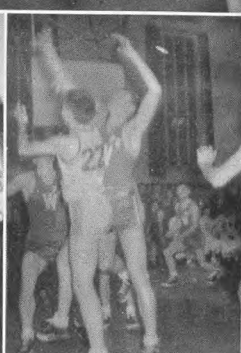

The Central Junior Ramblers, holders of the league championship in 1950, failed to retain the trophy this year.

This was probably due to the lack of experienced players and to the inability of the boys to handle the ball skillfully. However, they did give the other contends something to worry about, and the fans a little excitement.

The Junior Ramblers were defeated in their bid to retain the championship when they met a more powerful Western team in the play-offs. Although they did not win the championship, they did furnish the league's most valuable player, Jim Hawkes. Other outstanding hoopsters were Joe Ferguson, Robin Round, and Joe Fairbanks. As the season rolled along Stew Fisher, Deloy Sallenbach, Winston Churchill, Bill Fleming, Don Campbell and Don Erb turned in fine performances.

A good deal of credit must be given to Doug Hamilton, a former C.C.I. basketball star, for coaching the boys.

Senior Boys' House League Basketball

Competition was very keen in the Senior Basketball League this season with Lawson and Manarey fighting a "battle royal" for the championship.

The teams, captained by Ken Lawson, Bill Manarey, Jack Hunter and Bob Burton, played a pleasing brand of ball. The teams' spirit and drive made every contest an exciting match. The scoring title was copped by Bill Walsh whose fine form and remarkable ability gave him a substantial lead.

Volunteers from the sidelines refereed the games that were played each Monday at noon.

The boys wish to express their thanks to Mr. Brooks for supervising the league, and to the girls for looking after the score and time periods.

Back Row—Mr. Brooks, Ed Kemp, Joe Ferguson, Norman Kirkwold, Don Erb, Ron Martin, Pat Shouldice, Sandy Fitch.

Junior Boys' House League Basketball

The Kappa Kappa Tau Trophy, annually awarded to the Junior House League Champions, was presented to Bill MacKay, captain of the victorious team.

MacKay's aggregation defeated Jack Armstrong's hoopsters in a two game total point series. Two other contenders, captained by Tony Neidermayer and Dave Chetner, furnished tough opposition. Jack Armstrong ran off with the scoring title, racking up 139 points.

The boys would like to thank Mr. Brooks for the time he spent supervising the league, and to the girls for keeping score and time.

Athletics

Standing—Mr. Hackett, Bill Halliday, Don Purdie, Ken Rainsberry, Mike Snidal, Dick Collver, Allan Potter.

Missing—Ian Robertson, Ryan Towers.

Bantam Boys' House League Basketball

The "small man's" league for the boys who had the desire to play, but not the necessary height, was organized this fall.

Captained by Brian McKay, Jay Kellam, Gordon Moik and Saul Berman, the teams were ably coached by the star players of the Junior League.

McKay's hoopsters won the championship when they defeated Kellam's squad in a two game total point series.

The Bantam boys wish to thank Mr. Hackett for organizing and supervising the league.

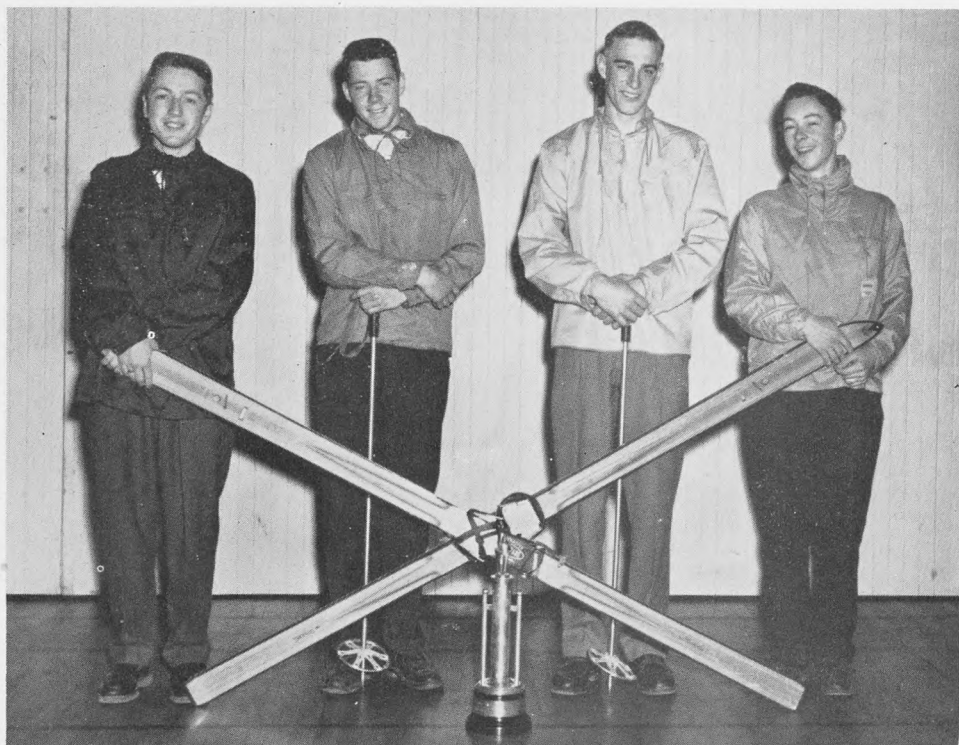

Back Row—Harold Wells, Deloy Sallenback, Tony Sharman, Jim MacGregor, Ronald Cripps.

Soccer Team

Central's representatives in the High School Soccer League did not prove to be a very powerful aggregation. Because of the poor turnouts, they were unable to cope with the stronger opposition. Nevertheless, they gained much needed experience; also more solid support next year should improve their standing.

Central played her "home" games at Connaught, McDougall and Western.

The team, under the management of Mr. Carscallen, was capably coached by Doug Harbridge.

Pete Hume, Eric Lovett, Bob Burton, Barry McPhee.
Missing—Jack Bruce (captain), Wilson Southam, Terry Kellam.

Interscholastic Ski Team

Enthusiasm and interest abounded in the Ski Club this year. Under the capable hands of a well-chosen executive, the group has accomplished a great deal.

The slate of officers were:

President	Terry Kellam
Vice-President	Barrie McPhee
Secretary	Kay Tavender
Treasurer	Wilson Southam
Advisor	Mr. Carscallen

Free instruction, informative ski pamphlets and reduced rates were enjoyed by the eighty-two members when the club joined the Calgary Inter-School Ski Association.

The Central team of Jack Bruce, Wilson Southam, Terry Kellam, Bob Burton and Pete Hume, with smooth "Christiannas" and reckless schusses, far outclassed the other entries in the Interschool Meet; thus they once again skied off with the Union Milk Trophy, emblematic of ski supremacy in the high schools.

During the year many 'snowbunnies' became adapt to handling their boards; furthermore there is little doubt that Central will be able to retain her crown next year.

Missing—Myrna Shapter.

Senior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

The blue and gold quintet scored the winning point in the finals to become the 1951 Senior Girls' Champions. They completed the regular season of games without a defeat. The semi-final game was a "touch and go" game with Western up seven points when the final whistle sounded. Central's great spirit and will to win however, proved too much for "the red and white" and after three minutes of spine-tingling overtime, Shirley Sellers broke away and scored the winning point.

If an all-star team were chosen, Margie Morgan, the team's able captain, would certainly have a berth. Shirley Sellers, always the perfectionist, could be relied upon to turn in a superb performance—passing, guarding, dribbling or shooting, she was always unbeatable. During league games, McKenna and Pilling were excellent on the defence, adding many points to the score. Robinson, by dribbling and intercepting, proved to be a valuable member of the team. Collins' unflinching sense of humor did much to bolster the spirit of the team. Henderson, Eaves and Wilkinson sparked the defence line.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the scorekeepers and timekeepers, and to Miss James, who helped support the team, and last in this writing, but foremost in our thoughts, Don MacPherson, for his untiring efforts to make Central proud of her "Senior Girls".

Athletics

Back Row—Bob Burton (coach), Marion King, Marion Simpson, Caroline Dunsmore, Heather Symons, Carol Holden, Norma Thompson.

Intermediate Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

The Intermediate Girls, who started the season raring to go, suffered only three defeats in the league, but were whipped by Western in the finals.

Top scorers in this league were Symons, Dunsmore and Sellers.

Heather Symons proved to be an able captain. Her accurate shooting and elusive dribbling did much to strengthen the team. The star guard on the team, Noreen Sellers, chalked up many points with her remarkable long shot. The "centre slot" was ably filled by Caroline Dunsmore and Marjorie Baggs. Marion King, Carol Holden, Norma Thompson, Ann Baxter, Lois Lowry and Barbara Gideon, sparked the forward line to many victories. The home basket was competently guarded by Marion Simpson, Betty Millard, and Shirley Martin.

We would like to thank Bob Burton and Tony Kolber for their instructive coaching, and the scorekeepers and timekeepers for their assistance on the sidelines.

Jack Hunter (coach), Mary-Jo Hopping, Helen Murray, Glenda Goodfellow, Bev. Sanderson, Carole Adams, Frances Corbett, Elizabeth Thomson, Elizabeth McCrae, Do-Rae Pilling, Donna Christie, Leona Larson, Delores Knight, Bill Walsh (coach).

Junior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

Central's Juniors did not reach the finals this year, although they played well during the season. Many of the girls on the Junior Team will be good material for basketball in the future.

Top scorers on Central's team this year were Pilling, Larsen and Hopping.

Bill Walsh worked hard with the girls, but they could not quite get the points that were so badly needed to edge out the top-ranking team.

The line-up for the Central Juniors was as follows:

Forwards: Knight, Haw, Hopping, Thompson, Adams. Centres: Pilling and Murray. Guards: Larsen, Sanderson, MacRae, Neilson, Goodfellow, Christie and Corbett.

Special thanks must be given to our score and timekeepers, and to Bill Walsh for his expert coaching of the team.

Athletics

Back Row—Carol Holden, Heather Symons, Tony Kolber, coach, Jean Collins, Marion Simpson.
Front—Lois Lowry, Marion King.

Senior Girls' House League Basketball

There were four teams, captained by King, Millard, Shapter and Robinson, in the Senior House League this year. In a gruelling match of skill, King's team managed to gain the edge on the Robinson quintet to win the final game by a close score of 18 to 12.

Every Tuesday noon saw the girls under the watchful eyes of their coaches practicing their dribbling, shooting and guarding before they played off their two scheduled games.

The line-ups were: Millard—Sellers, Dunsmore, Baxter, Thompsan, Burpee, Martin. King—Symons, Holden, Simpson, Collins, Lowry, Smith. Shapter—S. Sellers, McKenna, Pilling, Ridley, Gideon, Henderson. Robinson—Morgan, Wilkinson, Baggs, Gair, German.

Many thanks must be given to Miss James whose unfailing support and interest made the house league possible, the to score and timekeepers, and to the unselfish coaches.

Back Row—Frank Downey (coach), Helen Murray, Glenda Goodfellow, Leona Larson, Peggy Richardson, Miss James.

Junior Girls' House League Basketball

Six teams made up the junior loop this year. The captains were: Pilling, Larsen, LeBourveau, Corbett, Haw and Thompson. In the final game, Larsen's team defeated Pilling's, with a score of 23-17.

Line-ups for the teams were as follows: Larsen—Knight, Murray, Richardson, Goodfellow, Brown, Davis, Honacowciz, Anderson, Gedeger. Pilling—Adams, Moore, Neilson, Vellet, Geary, Featherstone, @ysblat, Nickles, Williams. LeBourveau—Joyce, Millard, Clarke, McDonald, Valentine, Johnson, Brooks, Zess. Thompson—Stevens, Sanderson, Woodcock, Coates, Patterson, Quigley, Ross, MacRae, Saboren. Corbett—Irwin, Tallon, Hayes, Davis, Sands, Woodford, Rhiback, Huck, Cantwell. Haw — Hopping, Christie, Brown, Egbert, Banks, Cameron, Parkinson, Webb, Redden.

Special thanks are due to Miss James, who supervised the games, to the girls who acted as scorekeepers and timekeepers, and to the girl who coached the teams.

The Central Badminton Team, composed of finalists from our School Tournament, played well, but were defeated at the Interscholastic Tournament at the Glencoe Club.

Advisor	Mr. Robertson
President	Terry Kellam
Vice-President	John Dunsmore
Secretary-Treasurer	Diana Henderson

The Central Senior Badminton Club has completed another very successful year. The club, which had a large enrolment, spent most of its time in playing mixed doubles. At the close of the year a club tournament was run off to decide the winners of the Phi Beta Phi Trophies, and to pick the members of the Interscholastic Team. The men's singles was won by Donald Erb, ladies' singles by Marion King, and mixed doubles by Marion King and Donald Erb.

It was decided that the Junior and Senior Clubs will merge into one next year.

Our sincere thanks go to Mr. Robertson whose hard work throughout the year made our club possible.

Junior Badminton Club

The club began the year with a large membership. The executive was:

President Mike Snidal
Vice-President Leonore Haw
Secretary-Treasurer Delores Knight
Committee Members Harold Hanen and Louise Waring

Under the supervision of Mr. Carscallen, the club played every Thursday. Because of the lack of interest shown by the members, the Junior Badminton Club has decided to affiliate itself with the senior group.

Athletics

Mr. Hackett, Gordon Macleod, Bob Johnson, Norman Kirkwood, Walter Matthews, Gordon Russell, George Farnish.

Curling Club

The bonnie art of curling is becoming more and more popular with the students of Central. As the members were very enthusiastic this term, an even better season is expected next year. Although the turnout was good, our team did not place in the eight team league.

Members of the club were: Gordon Russell, Walter Matthews, George Farnish, Bill Begg, Gordon McLeod, Bill Johnson, Bill Blain and Norman Kirkwood. Central was represented in the Taylor, Pearson and Carson competition by an all-star rink composed of Gordon Russell, Walter Matthews, Bill Begg and Bill Johnston.

A quartet of experts travelled to Lethbridge and there defeated the top team in the bonspiel to win two of the five trophies.

Bowling Club

Under the guidance of a keen executive, Central's Bowling Club, composed of grade eleven and twelve students, has bowled itself through another successful season.

The slate of officers were:

Advisor	Mrs. Fraser
President	Don MacPherson
Vice-President	Shirley McKenna
Secretary	Norma Thompson

Don MacPherson's "dead-eyed" team scored the strike, and won the Alpha Sigma Rho Cup, awarded to the high scoring group in the league. After a series of hotly contested games, John Dunsmore's aces managed to head the list in the Thursday night league, and Manarey's team topped the Friday league. Ladies' high single for the Friday night group was Marjorie Magnusson; for Thursday night, Heather Symons. The ladies' high doubles was copped by Barbara Morrow and by Heather Symons. Jim Browne and John Dunsmore scored the men's high singles and doubles in each of their respective leagues.

Athletics

Golf Club

Thirty-two enthusiastic "divot diggers" enrolled this year in the school Golf Club. A handicap tournament was held with the qualifying round determining the individual handicaps and school championship, which was won by Sandy Fitch with a score of 75. The handicap tournament itself was played during the latter part of the year with Bill Carver and Joe Ferguson competing for top honors.

The winner of the consolation event, staged for those defeated in the first round, was Pete Hume.

The Executive:

President	Sandy Fitch
Treasurer	Joe Ferguson
Officers	Ken Lawson, Don Macpherson

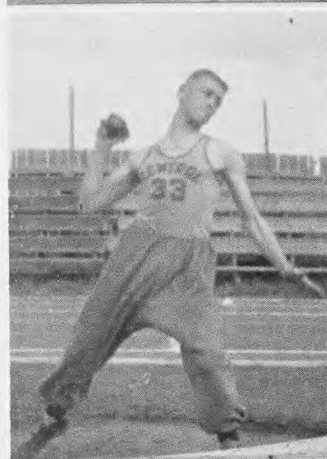

Baseball

Senior Captains—Mearl Venus, Bill Manarey, Jim Wallace, Don Macpherson.

Junior Captains—Vic Beaudry, Jack Armstrong, John Allison, Cy Reed.

The house league games were played at noon, with keen competition seen in both leagues. The championship seemed to rest on hurling ability. In the senior circuit, Manarey's Maulers featuring steady pitching (?), a flashy infield, and the league's strongest "fly catchers", managed to stop Venus's Stars and win the historic "Ice Cream Can". Wallace's Dodgers tied for second place honors, while "Macpherson's Scotchmen" had no trouble in occupying the basement position.

In the Junior Loop, at the time of writing, Beaudry's "Aces" had gone through the season undefeated, but not without tough competition.

And it's Central by a nose.
Heavy, eh what!

Girls' Track

Sparked by the outstanding performances of Do Rae Pilling, Sharon Bell, Marian Paulence and Marion King, the Girls' Team captured top honors in the Interscholastic Track Meet. Central again set the pace of the contest, chalking up forty-four points to win the Dr. Singleton Cup for the grand aggregate and the Birks' Trophy for the Junior Division.

By winning the high jump and the running broad, Doe Rae Pilling captured individual honors in the junior class.

The unseasonal weather prevented the relays from being held, and it was decided to cancel those events permanently.

Boys' Track

Central wound up the athletic activities of the '50-'51 season by running away with the Interscholastic Track and Field Championship. This marked the first time in thirty years that any school has taken top honors in interscholastic basketball, football and track during one season.

The Purple and Gold captured every shield offered for competition—Martin's Shield, emblematic of Interschool Track supremacy; Paschendal Shield, Junior Champion; St. Julien Shield, Intermediate Champion; and tie with Crescent for the Vimy Ridge Shield for the Senior Champion.

Larry Edwards turned in an outstanding performance taking three firsts in three starts in the junior division. Edwards also gave impetus to the four man relay team.

The intermediate division was highlighted by Bob Burton's record breaking 220 yard dash, Jim Browne's new record in the 120 yard hurdles, and Les Belenski's record shot put heave.

Peter Hume kept up the fast pace in the senior division by winning the 440 yard run and placing second in the 220 yard dash. Bill Walsh sped over the 120 yard hurdles to add a new record in the books for the senior hurdles.

Kappa Kappa Tau

This year the Kappa Kappa Tau is celebrating its twenty-fifth season of operation. Once again it has accomplished its two main purposes, establishing greater athletic interest in Central High School and helping to prepare its members for their future business life.

The past year has been a very successful one, both from the standpoint of business accomplished and fun obtained.

To promote athletics in Central, the "Tau" awards the K.K.T. Athletic Memorial Sweaters to the best all-round male athlete in each of the three grades. These sweaters are presented annually in memory of Joe Dutton, D'Arcy Scott and Tom Barr, three former Central athletes and members of the fraternity.

Bob Stocks of the Edmonton Maple Leafs was awarded the Tau trophy for the most valuable player to his team and this year the frat. also gave a trophy to the leading scorer in the Senior Interscholastic Basketball League. It was won by Norm MacIntosh of Crescent. The Gordon Emery Memorial Trophy for the most valuable player on the Central Senior Rugby squad was presented to Don Macpherson. Bill McKay's quintet captured the cup the frat. awards to the winning team in the Junior Boys' House League.

The frat. successfully undertook the printing and distribution of programs at all the Senior High School football games. The draw for the annual K.K.T. raffle was again held on New Year's Eve and two profitable rummage sales helped to swell the treasury.

The initial social function of the fraternity was the annual rush party. Here prospective members became acquainted with the members of the club. The new pledges were Denis Kirk, Wilson Southam, Dave Garrett, Abe Epp and Mike Snidol.

Other social activities were entertaining and varied. Several house parties, a toboggan party, stags and a barbeque were held, not to mention a marvellous New Year's Party.

The season was brought to a close with the annual banquet at the Palliser Hotel in June. Here the members had the opportunity to chat with the Alumni and to elect the 1951-52 slate of officers.

A wife, appearing with her husband before a police court judge, said: "That's my side of the story. Now I'll tell you his!"

"That 80-year-old man is as unconscious of his age as a 20-year-old. One cold day he came in wet and muddy from his knees down. "I wanted to cross the creek to see about the cow," he explained. "I used to jump it clear and easy, but now every dang time I try it I land in the middle. Guess I just ain't noticed it getting wider!"

A motion picture producer recently bought a ranch and put up palatial barns, stables, and chicken houses. "And are the hens laying?" asked a friend. "They are," said the movie monarch, "but of course, in my position, they don't have to."

"Well, Mary, now that we've struck oil, I want you to have some decent clothes," Farmer Brown said, handing his wife a roll of bills.

"Bill Brown, I'll have you know that I've worn decent clothes all my life," Mrs. Brown replied. "Now I'm going to dress like other women."

Two girls visited an aquarium. They were standing in some degree of awe before a huge tank where an octopus was exploring in every direction with its many tentacles. Mary finally remarked to her pal, "That reminds me, I have a date with George tonight."

Dedication

The years following graduation from high school are among the most important years in the lives of young men and women.

This is the period during which lifelong friendships are developed—the period when the final and the most important part of character education occurs. It is also the time during which education is completed or—left uncomplete.

It is the specialized, beyond-high-school training that counts the most in determining an individual's chances for success. When education is interrupted at the conclusion of high school, very few people have the opportunity to continue their education; and for the few who do continue at a later date, the difficulties of arranging for time and finances are increased a hundredfold.

The future of Canada belongs to the young men and women who are prepared and educated to accept the responsibilities of leadership. To these young men and women this page is dedicated.

At a party, one guest completely monopolized the conversation, much to the annoyance of the hostess's elderly mother. By the time he launched into a story of his experience during the war, she was bored to the point of retaliation. "I was torpedoed in the Pacific," he began. "In fact, I lived for a week on a can of sardines."

"Really!" exclaimed the exasperated old lady. "Weren't you afraid of falling off?"

They were talking about the fish they caught in Florida. One of the fishermen, a northerner, came back with this story about the enormous catfish he had landed in his home state.

"To give you an idea," he related, "it took a power winch to land it and a crane to get it up on the beach. There weren't any scales around large enough to weigh the fish so I got my little Brownie camera out and photographed it as a matter of record. The picture," he concluded, "weighed eleven pounds."

A girl from the Kentucky hills came home from boarding school for summer vacation. As she reached her home, her father took a look at her and said, "Daughter, you've lost some weight." "Yes, father," the girl replied, "I weigh 128 pounds stripped for gym." "Daughter," said the old timer with a horrified look on his face, "Who the heck is Jim?"

Two of our Central gentlemen were riding to school on the street car. The one sitting next to the window suddenly buried his head in his arms. The student next to him asked, "Are you sick? Can I do anything for you?"

"It's nothing like that," the other assured him. "I just hate to see old ladies standing."

"That new man we have on the pumps is certainly a live wire," remarked the owner of a local gas station.

"Really?"

"Yes, a customer drove up a few minutes ago and shouted, 'Dionne Quintuplets!'"

"That was a puzzler, wasn't it?"

"Not to Smith. He simply answered 'Right, Sir!' and gave the customer five gals."

"Your girl's spoiled, isn't she?"

"No, it's just the perfume she's wearing."

As a beauty I am not a star,
There are others more handsome by far,
But my face, I don't mind it
For I am behind it
It's the people in front get the jar.

The davenport held the twain,
Fair damsel and her ardent swain;
He and she.
But then a step upon the stair,
And pop finds them sitting there,
He-and-she.

Office Boy: "There's a man outside with a wooden leg named Smith."
Boss: "What's the name of his other leg?"

Stude: "I have checked this problem
eight times, sir."
Teacher: "Very good and thorough."
Stude: "Here are the eight results."
